

WINTERTUIN URSULINEN

The Winter Garden of the Ursulines

The Winter Garden of the Ursulines is much more than just a unique architectural masterpiece in art nouveau. This hidden gem is a living witness to educational innovation, international entrepreneurship and strong women of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Step into the enchanting world of the former international boarding school for girls in Onze-Lieve-Vrouw-Waver.

Let yourself be guided along impressive highlights of the historic building complex and visit the brehtaking art-nouveau Winter Garden from 1900. The magnificent stained-glass dome creates a magical play of light and colour and will undoubtedly leave you in awe. Using a brand-new interactive experience trail in true 'art à l'école' style, you will discover more about the heyday of the Ursuline Institute. Dive into the world of the former boarding school for girls with an audio guide or let one of our expert guides lead your group.

In short, the Winter Garden is an unparalleled gem of art nouveau just a stone's throw from Mechelen. The site is easy to reach by car and public transport and is close to bike node 36. For visitors who have trouble walking, the site is wheelchair-accessible.

Visit www.visitwintertuin.be for all information.

General contact details

Winter Garden of the Ursulines
Bosstraat 9A
2861 Onze-Lieve-Vrouw-Waver (Belgium)
info@visitwintertuin.be

Press questions

For questions regarding visiting opportunities, bookings, activities or a press visit to the Winter Garden, please contact vzw Wintertuin at info@visitwintertuin.be.

For questions related to patrimony and heritage management, please contact Stichting Kempens Landschap at info@kempenslandschap.be.

Images

You may use the photos we provide via our website for press purposes, provided the copyright holder is mentioned. The copyright information is indicated separately for each photo.

